

Vikas Gupta, Indian Citizen, born in a small city in the north state of Haryana, in India. Candidate for a Director on the role of Vice President Home Care subject to the approval of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders which will be held on 30 August 2016. Joined Unilever in 1998 as a Management Trainee. Over the last 18 years, he has worked in sales, brand building and brand development across home and personal care categories, in local, regional and global roles. The last 2 roles have been as the VP, Laundry, India and South Asia based in Mumbai and Global VP, Dirt is Good initiative of OMO/Persil (aka Rinso in Indonesia) based in Singapore. Over his various stints, He has developed deep expertise in marketing to consumers in the developing world in Asia, Africa and South America. This includes his particularly deep engagement with the Indonesian consumers and Unilever Indonesia over the years in various roles.

He has worked across offices in Delhi, Mumbai, London, Singapore and Sao Paulo before coming to Jakarta. He holds an MBA in Marketing & Finance and a Bachelor of Engineering (Mechanical) from premier Indian universities.

